ASSESSMENT PROCESS

1. An assessment team consisting of Japanese Canadian community members with a depth of knowledge of the Japanese Canadian community, Japanese and/or Japanese Canadian culture and community-led programming will be established through the JCLS.
2. The following process will be used to evaluate every application:
 - a. The assessment team develops a rubric prior to having access to any applications. The rubric is approved by the Advisory Committee.
 - b. The JCLS informs each applicant upon receipt of application and JCLS Community Fund program staff review the applications for eligibility.
 - c. The assessment committee evaluates eligible applications to determine whether the applicants should be funded and the level of funding for successful applicants.
 - d. The assessment committee recommends applicants to the JCLS, which makes the final approvals.
 - e. The JCLS informs each applicant if they are successful or unsuccessful in their application.
3. All decisions of the JCLS and assessment committee are final.

NOTIFICATION

- Decisions will be made by the JCLS and the assessment committee within four to six weeks of the application deadline. Notification will be sent via the online system to the contact linked to the online application. Results cannot be requested in advance.
 - Applicants should ensure the email address community@jclegracies.com is on their safe sender list and applicants should check their spam folders on a regular basis following their submission of application.

PAYMENT OF GRANTS

1. Awards will be paid in three instalments: 50% upon receipt of a signed grant agreement; 40% upon receipt of an interim progress report on the project; and a final payment of 10% upon receipt of a final report detailing activities and project outcomes.
 2. If the applicant's project changes, recipients must contact the JCLS office (in writing) as soon as possible to discuss impact on the project and to request permission for the changes.
 3. The JCLS reserves the right to suspend payments if the recipient:
 - a. does not carry out their planned project. Should the project not proceed, the initial instalment must be refunded to the JCLS;
 - b. makes major changes to the planned project without the approval of the JCLS;
 - c. fails to comply with the terms of the grant, including submission of the final report.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

1. A final report must be submitted within 30 days of the completion of the project for which funding has been provided.
 2. Instructions on submitting final reports will be given to successful applicants.
 3. The requirement for a final report will be part of the grant agreement.
 4. Future applications to the JCLS will be ineligible if reporting requirements on prior grants are not met.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The collection, use and disclosure of personal information are subject to the privacy provisions of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (BC). Personal information will be shared in confidence with members of the assessment committee. The names and locations of successful applicants may be published, along with the amount of the award, in the Annual Report of the JCLS as well as in various communications and promotional vehicles thereof. Social Insurance Numbers are provided to Canada Revenue Agency through the issuance of T4As.

RECOGNITION OF ASSISTANCE

In recognition of funding, the JCLS will provide a toolkit for grant recipients.
